The mission of Artful Living's Playwrights for Tomorrow is to give Connecticut youth an opportunity for artistic expression through reading and producing their original short plays and empowering their art through validation and potential scholarship awards. Artful Living is a 501c3 Community Theater organization dedicated to education and community building. Details & contacts for this event can be seen at our website: www.ArtfulLivingCT.com

Original plays should be written in Standard Script Format (see Helpful Hints page) and submitted electronically NO LATER THAN JANUARY 7, 2019 to chris@ArtfulLivingCT.com. Up to three Playwrights will be chosen to win $500 Scholarships. Three or more Playwright's plays may be chosen to be produced in limited format and presented by rehearsed actors at The Katherine Hepburn Cultural Arts Center on May 4, 2019.

By Signing below, the Playwright and the Guardian/Parent of Playwright assert that:

- 1) The submitted play is an ORIGINAL work (plagiarism is a serious offense) running no more than 30 minutes.
- 2) The Playwright is a High School student (or home schooled at the grade 9-12 level)
- 3) The Playwright is the only writer of this play (no co-writers allowed)
- 4) If selected, the Playwright could win up to a $500 Educational Scholarship and/or have the play produced
